

DEPRESSION SELF-CARE ACTION PLAN

Depression can make it difficult to practice healthy self-care. Building an Action Plan gives you quick, doable steps each day.

STEPS TO CONSIDER

- Make a list of activities you enjoy or would like to learn to do.
- Make a list of people you'd like to spend more time with.
- Memorize encouraging Scripture verses:
 - Psalm 42:11
 - Psalm 54:4
 - Micah 7:8b
 - Psalm 50:15
 - Isaiah 41:10
 - Lamentations 3:22-25
- Read a good book about depression, such as:
 - Dark Clouds, Deep Mercy: Discovering the Grace of Lament by Mark Vroegop
 - Hope Prevails: Insights from a Doctor's Personal Journey Through Depression by Michelle Bengtson
 - Sacred Sorrows: Reaching Out to God in the Lost Language of Lament by Michael Card
 - Spurgeon's Sorrows: Realistic Hope for Those who Suffer from Depression by Zack Eswine
- Remember God's faithfulness and how He has sustained you in the past. (Check out Chronic Joy's printable guide Build an Ebenezer: Remembering God's Faithfulness.)
- Start a gratitude list. Thank God for each good thing He's done.
- Post the number of a friend or loved one you can call day or night (on your mirror/on your fridge/etc).
- Make a playlist of your favorite music.
- Pray for someone you know who struggles with depression too.

Learning to live well with depression includes good medical care, healthy self-care, a growing relationship with Jesus, and creative ways of loving and serving one another.
