LOVE NOTES FROM GOD

I have loved you with an everlasting love; I have drawn you with unfailing kindness. (Jeremiah 31:3)

WHAT DOES GOD SAY ABOUT YOU?

Too often, when we look in the mirror, we see only the flaws the world shouts at us—we are not good enough, smart enough, skilled enough, pretty enough, focused enough, thin enough, driven enough, or healthy enough. Yet when God looks at us, He sees His beloved child, chosen, precious, known, seen, valuable, purposed, made new, and carrying His holy image.

Let's look into Scripture (the only mirror we will ever need) where God reminds us over and over of who we are in Him:

- For the next 24 days, choose one passage from the list above.
- Read it in several times and in several translations (if possible).
- Ask God what truth He is speaking to your heart and what He longs for you to learn about who you are.
- Note what you have learned in one of the blank flares on the other side of this page. Add the date so that on difficult days, you will remember who God says you are.
